

Indigita published two new e-Learning courses on ESG investments and ESG sustainable funds

Geneva, 21 May 2024 - Indigita SA announces the launch of two new e-Learning courses, rounding out the series on Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) topics. The courses offer a comprehensive understanding of ESG investments and ESG sustainable funds to portfolio managers, wealth managers, and other professionals in the financial industry.

Titled "ESG investments" the course explores the foundational aspects of ESG and its impact on the financial industry. During the various modules of the course, participants will gain a comprehensive understanding of the economic benefits and societal value of sustainability within the finance industry. Furthermore, the course explores how Socially Responsible Investment (SRI) products are constructed, using different strategies and the nuanced risks associated with sustainable investments. With a dedicated focus on ethical investment practices, the course also provides participants with the knowledge and tools to identify and prevent greenwashing.

The complementary course, called "ESG sustainable funds", equips professionals with an expertise on how to achieve financial goals through green investment funds. The course digs into macro-asset classes and sustainable investment strategies, emphasizing on ESG factors. Environmental, Social, and Governance factors shape the bedrock of sustainable investment strategies, as explored in the course.

Each course takes approximately 45 minutes to complete and concludes with a final assessment to validate participants' learning progress. Upon completion, participants will receive a certificate recognized by SAQ – Swiss Association for Quality.
