BRP Bizzozero & Partners and Indigita continue business expansion and open a new office in Lugano

Geneva, 02 February 2021 – Leading regulatory knowledge provider BRP Bizzozero & Partners SA and its regtech subsidiary Indigita SA have opened a new office in Lugano. The new location represents a strategic expansion and builds the foundation for an increased focus on the South Swiss and Italian market.

The opening of Indigita SA and BRP Bizzozero & Partners SA' Lugano office forms part of BRP Group's strategy to expand its business across additional regions. Known as Switzerland's third financial centre, alongside Zurich and Geneva, Lugano acts as a gateway to the Italian market. In addition to a more direct access to southern Europe's markets, the new location will allow the two companies to further strengthen their cross-border service capabilities.

Together with the companies' Geneva headquarters and Zurich branch, the new Lugano office extends BRP Group's footprint to all major Swiss financial centres. The expansion comes as a response to the increased demand for the group's products and services, which help financial institutions conduct their cross-border business in a safe and compliant way amid an increasingly complex regulatory environment.

BRP Bizzozero & Partners SA Head of Lugano Office Donatella Favalli said: "While BRP and Indigita have already been serving the Ticino and Italian markets in the past, the opening of our Lugano office underscores the success of BRP Group's growth strategy. Despite the challenging economic environment, we were able to substantially expand our service offering as well as our client base over the past year. Our new location in the south of Switzerland will help us continue on this path and, at the same time, allow us to serve our clients in Ticino and in Italy more closely and efficiently."

Indigita SA Head of e-Learning and person in charge of the Lugano office Andrea Briganti said: "Indigita already had a footprint in Ticino, thanks to our local client base, which has grown significantly over the past year. In addition, we have a strategic partnership with Ticino-based financial training provider Centro Studi Villa Negroni (CSVN). The opening of our Lugano office is a logical next step to better serve the southern part of Switzerland and the adjoining regions."

The Lugano office of Indigita SA and BRP Bizzozero & Partners SA is located at Via Balestra 22b, 6900 Lugano, Switzerland.
